

CZECH SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME EEA AND NORWAY GRANTS (CZ07) 7th December 2016, Prague, Czech Republic

7th December 2016, Masarykova kolej (Masaryk Dormitory Congress Centre),
Thákurova Street 550/1, Prague

10:00	Registration
10:30–10:50	Welcome speech
10:50–11:30	Scholarship programme and its results
11:30–12:00	I. Block: Examples of good practice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Effective tools in education Better Learning in Schools: Reflective Teams as a Resource in School Development assoc. prof. Bohumíra Lazarová, Masaryk University, Faculty of Arts Personality, Learning Approaches and Teaching Styles in Undergraduate Mathematics – PLATSUM Josef Rebenda, Ph.D., Brno University of Technology, CEITEC Prof. Yuriy Rogovchenko, University of Agder, Department of Mathematical Sciences
12:00–13:00	Lunch break

- 13:00–14:20 II. Block: Examples of good practice
• Ways to transfer expertise into practice
- Analysis of E-learning Methodology for Prison Education at University Level
Eva Slezáková, Masaryk University, Faculty of Economics and Administration
- Sign Languages in Higher Education
PhDr. Petr Peňáz, Masaryk University, Support Centre for Student with Special Needs
- Universities Approaches in Tackling the Changing Job Markets for Graduates
Emil Velinov, Ph.D., The University of Economics, Faculty of Business Administration
- Community Innovative Entrepreneurship Study Course
Jiří Dlouhý, Charles University, Environment Center
- 14:20–14:50 Coffee break
- 15:00–15:45 Workshops: Exchange of experience
• Mobility projects in bilateral cooperation
• Institutional cooperation projects in bilateral cooperation
- 15:45–16:00 Presentation of the outcomes from the workshops
16:00–16:15 Information about EEA and Norway Grants 2014–2021
16:15–16:30 Closing of the conference

About the venue: goo.gl/z6sPxM

About the conference: goo.gl/w06j9W

Interested in participation? Please, register via goo.gl/nxnkYJ until November 25, 2016.